LIBRARY CONTEST

Every 10c you spend with us entitles you to a vote for your favorite.

REMEMBER YOUR FAVORITE SOMERS

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

Quality Shoe Shop

Colonial

$2.00 to $4.00

All Leathers

CHARBONNEAU

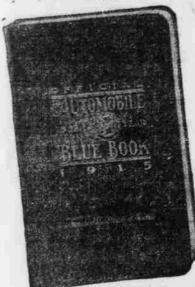

Let us make your glasses INVIS-IBLE BIFOCAL or two pairs in one. They'll give you perfect vis-ion for both far and near objects. We take the entire responsibility of your glasses being right and guarantee satisfactory results in all cases.

J. F. MARCH, Optometrist 10 Broadway. Norwich, Conn. Phone 1312

FOR YOUR

MOTOR TOURS

BUY

NEW 1915 ISSUE Now on Sale

CRANSTON'S

158 Main Street

F. C. GEER, Piano Tuner

2 Prospect Street, Norwich, Conn. 'Phone 511 THERE is no advertising medium is stern Connecticut equal to The Buil Thirteen was a sacred number among the ancient Mexicans.

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, May 5, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Tuesday was Adrian day among the Swedish people.

Peach growers are well pleased with the outlook for a good peach crop this

A showery Wednesday is predicted by the almanacs, which will not please the merchants.

In a recent issue of The Inden and a Miss Winifred Welles of Norw and a

Somerset lodge, Es Apprentice degree tonight, a sadv

The work of painting the buildings owned by the Yale navy in the village of Gales Ferry was begun this week.

May baskets are the popular favors at social affairs this week, the stores offering many pretty and dainty ones.

A book recently acquired by the Peck library at the Free Academy is The Century Cyclopaedia of Names, latest Tuesday at 8 o'clock in St. Patrick's church a month's mind high mass of requiem for John E. Drohan was sung by Rev. J. H. Broderick. The power boat owned by George S

Ashbey of Norwich, which was hauled out for the winter at Gales Ferry, has

Both the scarlet and the pink Jap-anese quince shrubs about town are in full bloom. All spring flowers are blossoming well in spite of the cold.

Tuesday afternoon the women's prayer meeting held at Bushneli chap-el was ably led by Mrs. Mary B. Cor-bin. There was a fair attendance.

Rev. H. J. Wyckoff, pastor of the Second Congregational church, is to be out of town between Sundays during May, returning to preach as usual.

Norwich people who have been after arbutus at Gales Ferry find it extra scarce, due to the carelessness of peo-ple who pull the plant up roots and all. Regular convocation of Franklin Chapter, No. 4, R. A. M., will be held at Masonic temple Thursday May 6' at 7:30 p. m. Work in the Mark Masters' degree. Refreshments at the close of the meeting.—adv.

S ing to make out the twenty-five sun spots, just discovered and believed by some to be responsible for the chilly

A Salem summer resident, Miss Iveagh H. Sterry, entertained a few friends at a birthday tea at her home at the Mohican hotel, New London, Monday afternoon.

The New London typographical union has elected Frank Ham, delegate and R. V. Burnett, alternate, to the convention to be held in Portland, Me., in June,

& ANDREWS

Jeremiah O'Sullivan, the Willimantic contractor who died Tuesday, was well known in Norwich. He was a brother of Mrs. P. D. Murphy, formerly of Thamesville.

Rev. Father Bettencourt of Fall River, Mass., has left town after giving a three days' mission at St. Patrick's church for the Portuguese members of the parish, about 80 in number.

Shad fishermen at Lyme report only

The proposed stone wall which was to have been built as a breakwater and protection from winter storms at Shin-necosset beach, Eastern Point, will not be constructed until the close of the summer season.

Marquardt Brothers have bought the old Congregational church in Thames street, Groton, which has not been church was built in 1901, at which time it was about 65 years old.

One of the new teachers appointed one of the new teachers appointed at Crosby High school, Waterbury, is Miss Helen Bolan, teacher of cooking. Miss Bolan is a graduate of Crosby High school and of the domestic science department, Storrs college.

The Connecticut state council of the Knights of Columbus is to hold its annual session in Hartford May 10 and 11. Committees from each of Hartford's four councils are making elaborate preparations for the event.

Norwich friends hear from Rev. Dr. L. L. West, a former Second Congregational church pastor, that he is now at Long Beach, Cal., in such improved health that he may be able to take an assistant pastorate. Mrs. West is now

The April marks read to the Holy Cross students Monday by Rev. James A. Mullen, S. J., prefect of studies, in-cluded one testimonial (35 or over) to Thomas F. Shea of the junior class and one to Robert H. Mahoney, sophomore, one to Robert H. Ma both Norwich boys.

An assistant health officer in Paw-catuck has been appointed to Dr. C. F. Congdon of Mystic, formerly of Salem. Dr. Congdon has been very active in his work during the past year, doing much to cleanse the milk supply and seeing that nulsances were abated.

The silver anniversary of the Connecticut Association of Women Work-ers, of which the Halle club is a mem-ber, is to be held Monday, May 10, in Bristol. The Laurel club, which is the local club of this association, ex-pects to entertain about 200 delegates.

The White Ribbon Banner for May contains the following memorial note:
Mrs. P. R. Strong, the oldest member of Colchester W. C. T. U. has passed to her heavenly home, Though an invalid for several years she main-tained her interest in the work of the union to the end.

The New York, New Haven and Hartford's report for March shows gross earnings of $5.352,000, an increase of $23,000 over March, 1914, Expenses were cut $500,000, with the result that the net corporate income was $255,000 as compared with a defect of Ocean Beach colony has a town clock now. There has been placed on the tower of a building on the estate of former Senator George M. Landers a clock with chimes attachment that tells the time every quarter hour.

Every candidate on the pro-borough ticket was elected at the annual election held in the Second district hall in Groton Monday. Warden C. Tyler Landphere, a native of Montville, defeated the head of the citizen's ticket by only 14 votes.

PERSONALS

Miss Ethel Hewitt of Lyme has been siting in Norwich. Archibald Mitchell has been in New

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Behrisch of Yonkers, N. Y., are visiting in this

A. M. Kennedy of Norwich has open-ed his Gales Ferry cottage for a few

Capt. James D. Pettigrew of the steamer City of Lowell is on a vaca-

Miss Agnes Hickey of Palmertown, was a visitor in Norwich Tuesday

Mrs. F. O. Grandy of Stonington has been with relatives in Norwich for a brief stay. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Woodward of New Haven have come to their sum-mer home in Franklin.

Mrs. L. A. Eccleston of Hallville who was taken suddenly ill Sunday, is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Libby hav returned to Norwich after a brief visit at Pine Grove, Niantic.

W. E. Perry and Benedict Puller have returned from a short vacation trip to Old Point Comfort, Va. Norris Ryley of Norwich has been making a brief visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Ryley, of Mystic.

Miss Vera McGuinness of Norwich has returned after a few days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Schlink of Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Parker of Mc-Kinley avenue have been called to Poughkeepsie by the death of Mrs.

Parker's grandfather. Mrs. William Russell of Crystal avenue, New London, is seriously ill at her home. Mrs. G. K. Sanders of Thames Terrace is a niece.

Mrs. L. W. Bacon of Washington street went Tuesday to Hartford, where she is attending the two days' session of the McCall missionary con-

J. B. Caron who has been confined to the house with a serious case of blood poisoning is able to be out again blood poisoning is able to be out again but it will be several days before he can return to work.

Elroy M. Avery of Cleveland, O., author of Avery's History of the United States, which is now being published in 12 volumes, was a recent guest at the Mohican hotel, New London, and was called upon by a number of rela-tives. He is related to a number of familles prominent in New London and Windham counties.

GAVE SURPRISE TO

45th Wedding Anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Young Celebrated.

Quite unexpectedly to Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Young of Bozrah, fifty of the members of the church and congression gave them a surprise on Monday evening in celebration of their 45th wedding anniversary. The party gathered at the church vestry at 7.30 and walked from there to the parsonage, completely surprising the pastor and his wife, the more so as one of those to come in with the visitors was their daughter. Mrs. Fred Papley of Hartford, who had been telephoned for and had come on in an automobile with her husband, joining the others Quite unexpectedly to Rev. and Mrs with her husband, joining the others

St. Mary's Star of the Sea Total Abstinence society of New London is to give a dance Friday evening. Invitations have been sent to St. Annie's Ladies' Temperance society of Norwich.

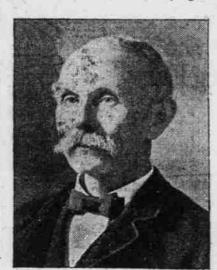

Shad fishermen at Lyme report only small catches of fish so far. The average haul nets from five to eight fish, though it is reported that fishermen across the river at Saybrook netted 25 at one haul.

A letter of appreciation from James for the rare liverage to the fish that been given them and the presented to make the pleasure of hearing him again. Miss Burnham. successive wrappings and boxes. When he reached the end he found a gift of $15 in gold contained in it.

Refreshments were served and at the request of the company Rev. Mr. Young cut the first piece from the wedding cake, then allowing his daughter to finish the distribution. The evening was a delightful one for pastor and people.

used for worship since the new stone SUFFERED SHOCK AT HIS SHOP. Death of George M. Hyde, Well Known Norwich Builder.

> George M. Hyde, well known in Nor. wich as a carpenter and builder, died at his home at Hyde Place off Roosevelt avenue, late Tuesday night. His death resulted from a shock which he suffered Tuesday morning. About 10 o'clock Tuesday forenoon he was found unconscious in his shop at No. 54 Tenth street and Dr. R. R. Agnew who was immediately called took him to his home on Hyde Place. Just how long he lay at his shop is not known but he may have suffered the shock an hour before his condition was dis

GEORGE M. HYDE.

George M. Hyde was born in Norwich, Oct. 23, 1845, the son of Harian and Lucy Durfey Hyde. He was educated in the public schools and finished at Schofield's college in Providence. He always resided in Norwich and Preston and represented the latter town in the legislature during 1861. town in the legislature during 1901-1902, and he served as town commit-teeman in Preston. In 1906 he was elected a member of the common coun-$265,000 as compared with a deficit of cil of this city, serving for the two year term. He was a member of Somerset lodge, No. 34, F. and A. M.

Trinity college in February, has ac-cepted a position in the bond depart-ment of the National City Bank of New York, and began work there on Monday. He will graduate with his class at Trinity in June.

comity fail allke to provide muzzles for war dogs, although all of the animals have rabies.—Louisville Courier-Journal

CRIMINAL COURT MAY TERM

Begun in New London-Prisoners Put to Plea-Six of the Accused are From Norwich-On Charges of Chicken Stealing, Non-Support, Burglary, Murderous Assault and Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

The May criminal term of the superior court opened in New London Tuesday afternoon with Judge Milton Shumway on the bench. The court room was filled with spectators and witnesses, Rev. J. Romeyn Danforth offered prayer, after which Deputy Sheriff H. E. Draper of this city opened court shortly after 2 o'clock. Most of the afternoon was occupied in listening to pleas.

to pleas.
Frank Chimbroski of New London

Frank Chimbroski of New London pleaded not gullty to assault with intent to murder Anthony Buka with a knife Feb. 14, 1915.

John B. Cody of Groton was charged with breaking and entering the store of A. C. Weeks in Poquonnoc March 14, 1915, and pleaded not gullty.

Katherine Collins, alias Collette, of New London, pleaded gullty to committing adultery with Frank Roe of New London.

Edward Dorsey, a minor, pleaded not guilty to the charge of burgiarizing a barn owned by Judge William B. Coit on April 15.

Frank Ferace of this city, charged with assault with intent to murder by with assault with intent to murder by shooting Racina Covello in Norwich Feb. 17, pleaded not guilty.

Frederick A. Gay of this city pleaded not guilty to the charge of failure to support his afmily, consisting of his wife and children, from Jan. 1, 1913, to May 17, 1913. May 17, 1913. James Grillo of New London, charged

James Grillo of New London, charged with assault with intent to kill and murder a soldier in New London about two months ago, did not answer to his name and bonds of $500 furnished by Francis Frank were called.

William Gudeahn of this city pleaded not guilty to stealing nine chickens in Norwich Jan. 19.

Henry Hudson of Stonington was charged with failure to support his wife from Jan. 1, 1911, to Feb. 9, 1915, and pleaded not guilty.

and pleaded not guilty.

Edward LaDuca of New London pleaded not guilty to the charge of indecent assault on Harry Jewett, a boy residing in East New London, last John Barc, alias William Dembroski, of this city, pleaded not guilty to ob-taining $1,100 under false pretenses from Mr. and Mrs. Edward Plotkowski ast February.

SENATOR BARNES SPOKE AT MT. CALVARY CHURCH Before Bible and Literary-Made Impressive Address Upon Friendship. The Norwich Bible and Literary society held an interesting meeting at Mt. Calvary Baptist church Sunday afternoon. The programme was in charge of Mrs. A. F. Drury and was as follows: Singing by the society, The Banner of the Cross; reading, Miss Claribel Robinson; reading, Mrs. Julia Ruley; singing by society, When He Shed His Blood; paper, Mrs. Louise Stall, Duty; solo, Mrs. Frances Evans, My Lord and I; reading, Miss Ethel Lacy; duet, Miss Idelia Scott and Mrs. A. F. Drury; piano solo, Mrs. Maud Epps; reading, Miss Idelia Scott.

The speaker of the afternoon was The Norwich Bible and Literary so of a pleasure by the large audience which picture machine, $50 in kitchen fur-dates had gathered. At the close the presi-was dent, Howard Wilson, in behalf of the having raised $615 during the year.

Hattie Spivery was the pianist, HEARD ARGUMENTS IN Attorneys Presented Paulson vs.

Greene Case Before Judge Greene.

Judge Gardiner Greene heard the arguments in the superior court here on Wednesday morning in the suit of Mrs. Augusta Paulsen of this city against Albert G. Greene of Griswold on her claim for $3,000 damages for injuries in an automobile accident. Als man Thomas Gragan of New London against Mayor B, F, Mahan and the New London committee, asking that tlan Soldiers. Mrs. Learned concluded the familiar hymn Unward Christian Soldiers. Mrs. Learned concluded the first performance given here in Breed hall many years ago. Reports Showed a Prosperous Year Election of Officers.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SPIRITUAL UNION.

Encouraging reports were presented at the annual meeting of the Nor-wich Spiritual union at the Spiritual Academy on Tuesday evening. Academy on Tuesday evening. The treasurer's report showed all bills paid with a substantial balance in the treasury. The election of officers resulted in the following choice:

Clerk, Mrs. Esther N. Blinn; treasurer, William B. Bogue; auditors, Mrs. Charles A. Dowsett and Sizna Beebe; speakers' committee, Albert P. Blinn, William F. Bogue, Robert D. Parker, Mrs. Gertrude Tootill, Mrs. Nathan Brewster; music committee, Mrs. Au-gustus Gould, Mrs. Charles S. Twist, Mrs. E U. G. Baker and Mrs. Charles A. Dowsett: floral committee, Mrs. A. Dowsett; fi Gertrude Tootill, Two new members were received into the union. Dinner For Miss Thresher.

A dinner of seven covers was given at the Wauregan house Tuesday even-ing in honor of Miss Marguerite Thresher which was arranged by Mrs. Frank L. Kimball. The guests were:
Mrs. William Mitchell of Poquetanuck, Miss Jean Burleson of Jewett
City, Miss Marion Braley, Miss Hazel Smith and Miss Marion Kimball.

Rehearsals for Philharmonic Concert. The members of the Norwich Philcil of this city, serving for the two year term. He was a member of Somerset lodge, No. 34, F. and A. M.

Goes to New York Bank.

Bertram B. Bailey, who by extra work finished his course of studies at Tripity college in February has accommodated with interest by their friends and much enjoyed when given. Contributions for Benevolences

At Trinty Methodist Episcopal church, the contributions for benevoences for the last conference were $1,448. In this were the follow-ing amounts for missions: Board of Foreign Missions $341, Board of Home Missions $328, Wo-man's Home Mission society $268, Woman's Home Mission society $105.

The case against Louis Mitchell of Stonington, charged with failure to support his family, was nolled on sug-gestion of State Attorney Hull, who said there was no ground for prosecution.

Daisy Phillips of New London pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault with intent to murder her husband, William Phillips, in New London, om March 20, with a razor.

John Slager pleaded not guilty to burglarizing the factory of the United Metal Manufacturing company in this city April 12.

Frank Spencer of New London was charged with assault with intent to murder Thomas Connelly with a knife on March 31 and pleaded not guilty.

John F. Stapleton of New London. charged with forgery on Dec. 5, pleaded not guilty.

Frank Rose of New London pleaded not guilty.

Frank Rose of New London pleaded not guilty to adultery with Mrs. Kath-erine Collins, alias Collette, Sept. 1, 1914.

Stephen Yecky of New London plead-ed not guilty to the charge of breaking and entering a freight car in that city.

Rock Zekos, charged with assault with intent to kill and murder Frank Barry in New London Jan. 14 with a knife, pleaded not guilty.

Roy Buddington of Groton pleaded not guilty.

not guilty of attempting to murder Fred Whipple with arsenic on March 4.
William Mitchell of Groton was charged with non-support of his wife and children during a period of a year to date. He said he was not guilty.

Jail Sentences Given. The court took a recess of 20 minutes at 3.10 and then resumed its session until 4 o'clock when adjournment was until 4 o'clock, when adjournment was taken until the next day at 10 a, m. After the recess John Cody changed his plea to guilty of burglary and was sentenced to jail for 40 days. Steve Yecky, who stole a bag of sugar from a C. V. car, was sentenced to three months in jail. John F. Stapleton of New London, for forging a check of R. F. Heffenreffer, changed his plea to guilty and was sentenced to three months in jail.

John Slager of Norwich changed his John Slager of Norwich changed his plea to guilty and was sent to jail for six months.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY

HAD SUCCESSFUL YEAR Reported at Annual Meeting-Made Large Gifts to Association.

At the annual meeting of the Y. M. C. A. Woman's auxiliary, which was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward D. Fuller at No. 263 Broadway, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Henry M. Pollock; vice president, Mrs. Charles W. Prentice; secretary, Mrs. Allyn L. Brown; treasurer, Mrs. Edwin W. Higgins. The following were elected members of the lowing were elected members of the board for three years: Mrs. Pollock, Mrs. Fitch Allen, Mrs. Leonard O. Smith, Mrs. H. F. Palmer, Miss Mary Epps; reading, Miss Idella Scott.

The speaker of the afternoon was next introduced, Senator John H. Barnes, who made an address. His subject was Friendship. Rev. J. H. Dennis, pastor of the church, made the introduction. The speaker proved himself a most eloquent and interesting the speaker and was listened to with past year, Mrs. Daniel S. Hav-lland, showed a present membership of 319, and the annual report of the treasurer, Mrs. Higgins, showed that the auxiliary had paid in full its pledge of $300 to the association and had given in addition a $100 moving picture machine, $50 in kitchen furnish.

The sum of $400 was pledged to be given to the Y. M. C. A. for the coming year.
Mrs. Bela P. Learned gave a very AUTO DAMAGE SUIT delightful talk on Pinafore and its composer, Sullivan, of whom she said was a liberal education to know im. Born in London of music-loving parents he grew up in the very atmo-sphere of music and while his com-positions were always melodious and popular in the best sense of the word they never degenerated into the or common, but remain as the standard of light opera. Sullivan was born in May, 1842, and by a somewhat singutorney Allyn L. Brown made the argument for the plaintiff and Attorney Telley E. Babcock for the defendant, in later years, namely, the bringing finishing at noon, when the judge took the papers and reserved decision.

Court adjourned to the next morning later in May he was knighted by Queen at the Opera Committee out of Pinafore out of at 9.30 o'clock, when the judge is to hear the injunction matter of Alder known of his operas, ran seven hunman Thomas Gragan of New London dred nights in London and there, as against Mayor B. F. Mahan and the New London committee, asking that they be restrained from purchasing the fire apparatus which was voted for by the New London common council.

dred nights in London and there, as in the provinces, created a great sensation, which soon apread to the United States. Indeed so great was the furore here that Gilbert and Sullivan came to America to protect their rights, remaining several months. rights, remaining several months. Others of his works are Patience, Pirates of Penzance, Mikado and Iolanthe and the familiar hymn Onward Chris-

JOINT OUTING.

Sodality and St. John's Committees

Conferred Over Summer Event, Committees from the Sodality and from St. John's society of New Lon-don held a meeting on Tuesday ev-ening at the Sodality rooms in conference over a joint outing to be held by the two societies this summer. It was decided that it should be at the drawbridge on some Sunday in the latter part of July, taking the form of a general outing at which there should be a programme of land and aquatic sports with a bake served during the day. Further details and the exact date are to be determined upon later and the committees will hold another joint meeting in about two weeks.

On the St. John's committee were On the St. John's committee were Martin Dray, Matthias Moran, William Fox, Clarence Cook, Thomas Conboy, Thomas Congdon, Samuel Donahue, Daniel Donahue, Edward Corcoran and Joseph Kennedy. On the Sodality committee were George C. Driscoll, J. A. Desmond, John J. Sullivan, Joseph Sheridan, Daniel Mullen, John Drew and William Harrington.

Will Give Play in Putnam The Norwich young people who re-cently presented with such success at the Osgood Memorial the farce "The Time of His Life have accepted an invitation to give the play in Putnam. It will be at an entertainment for the benefit of the College club The cast includes Edward Jewett

William E. Perry, Miss Marion L. Pullen, Miss Sarah Loring, Miss Kath erine Isbister, Raymond B. Sherman, William Humphrey Almy Benedict C. Pullen and Earle E. Mathewson.

LOCAL ARTILLERYMEN

GO TO FORT WRIGHT. Will Spend Five Days in Practice and Instructions-Officers Left Tues-

On Tuesday Captain G. E. Church, Lieut, W. R. Denison and Lieut, F. Q. Smith of the Third company, C. A. C., C. N. G., with Lieut, Walter Simpson of the Fifth company left for Fort Wright, Fisher's Island, to attend the school of instructions for a period of five days, commencing today. Exam-inations are taken at the close. Today the enlisted men of the two companies will also go there. It is expected that there will be seven from the Third company and six from the Fifth, these being the ones who will fill the positions at camp for which they will secure instructions at this time. They are the gun pointers, time. They are the gun pointers, gun commanders, observers and plotters, and they will get practice and instruction in these positions.

FOOT AND MOUTH

QUARANTINE RAISED Cattle Can be Moved in New London County-But There is Closed Area.

According to a statement issued on Tuesday by Cattle Commissioner Jeffrey O. Phelps, no foot and mouth disease among cattle in New London county now exists and an order has been issued revoking the order of April 8 prohibiting the transportation of cattle. The order however does not relieve the county fro mrestrictions that no live stock can be brought into the state without a permit from the commissioner. According to the notice, cattle for immediate slaughter can be brought into the county. The order allowing the transportation of cattle in this county goes into effect today (Wednesday) and the towns included in the order are Bozrah, Franklin, Griswold, Groton, Ledyard, Lis-bon, Montville, New London, Norwich, North Stonington, Preston, Sprague Stonington, Voluntown and Waterford The closed area includes those portions into which the interstate move-ment of cattle, sheep and swine is permitted for immediate s'ughter only, and from which the interstate and foreign movement of dressed car-casses of the animals is restricted.

OBITUARY.

(Contributed.) Mrs, Sarah E. Rogers,

The many friends of Mrs. Sarah E. Rogers will be pained to know of her death, which occurred Monday afternoon, May 2nd, at her home, No. 20 Sherman street. Mrs. Rogers had been in poor health for some time and in her weakened condition was unable to rally from a severe cold from which she recently suffered. A woman of kindly sympathy and thoughtfulness for all in sorrow or distress, she leaves the kindest memories in the hearts of hosts of those who have best known her. She is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Luella R. Carr, Mrs. Marcus F. Grady of Norwich and Mrs. William H. Cox of Providence, and by her daughters, Mrs. Frank H. Lester of this city and Mrs. Edward B. Fisher of Atlanta. Ca

Atlanta, Ga.

George F. Tinker. Ex-Mayor George Frederick Tinker of New London passed away Tuesday morning at 7.45 at his home there as the result of an illness that followed the taking of a severe cold a few days ago. No man in New London was more widely known or more highly esteemed widely known or more highly esteemed than George F. Tinker.

Mr. Tinker was a native of Marlow, Vt. He was born Feb. 13, 1834, the son of Nathan and Mary Ann (Stone)
Tinker. In his early life he devoted several years to school teaching, and later acted as clerk in stores. Mr. Tinker's parents moved to New London in 1855 and in company with his father he engaged in the meat business under he engaged in the meat business under the firm name of N. Tinker & That business was continued for 5 years.

After selling out his market a few years ago, Mr. Tinker continued the business of making brooms, being the proprietor of the New England Broom company, trustee of the Savings Bank of New London and connected in an official capacity with the management of the Memoral Hospital association. of the Memorial Hospital association, Bulkeley school, Smith Memorial home, Y. M. C. A., and other institutions.

Always a republican, for 18 years he served the city as a member of the council. He was elected to the council in 1871 and in 1874 was chosen alder-man, being re-elected in 1875, '81 and '84. In 1882 he ran for mayor, but was defeated by George E. Starr. In 1888 he was again a candidate for the mayor's chair and he was elected by a good or's chair and he was elected by a good sized majority. Mr. Tinker also served as representative in the legislature, having been a member of the commission that erected the new state capitol. For many years a member of the First Congregational church, he was for 30 years superintendent of the Sunday school and held the office of superintendent emeritus at the time of

Probably no New Londoner, in proportion to his means, ever gave as much of his means to philanthropic objects as Mr. Tinker. No worthy call was ever rejected by him, and while he was never an extremely rich man, his financial aid has been a won-terprises and was in business in Mon-son Enfield, Springfield and Philadel-

For the past ten years Mr. Towne made his home with his son in New London.

FUNERALS.

Mrs. John F. Farrell. At 3.15 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the funeral of Louise McGuire, wifetof the funeral of Louise McGuire, wifell John F. Farrell, was held from the parlors of Undertaker Charles A. Gager, Jr., No. 70 Franklin street, with Rev. Johns Bohanan, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, officiating. The bearers were Franz E. Danielson, James Blair, William H. Enos and C. Eugene Saunders and burial took place in Maplewood cemetery. Rev. Mr. Bohanan conducted a committal service at the grave. There were a number of relatives and friends present and the foral tokens of sympathy were beauforal tokens of sympathy were beau

Miss Mary Murphy. Funeral services for Miss Mary Mur-phy were held on Monday morning, Rev. J. H. Broderick officiating at the mass in St. Patrick's church. The mass in St. Patrick Curran, The bearers were Patrick Curran, Thomas Murphy, John Murphy and Dennis Brennan. The body was sent to West-erly by Undertakers Shea and Burke and services were held in St. Michael's church in Pawcatuck with burial in St. Michael's cemetery.

Miss Murphy who resided at No. 32 Still, if Colonel Roosevelt were to remain silent, who would do our regular hair-raising for us?—Chicago News.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Oppasite Post Office. Phone 321-2 Lady Assistant

rerguson's

PENDANTS

BROOCHES

Franklin Square, Norwich

Diamonds

resided with her and there is also brother in Boston.

Roman Lovaske. Tuesday morning the funeral of Roman Lovaske was held from the chapel of Undertakers Shea and Burks with a mass in St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock, Rev. I. Maciejewski officiating. Burial took place in St. Mary's carretery.

emetery.
Mr. Lovaske died at the Norwick State Tuberculosis sanatorium or Sunday. He was a native of Austria but for some years he had resided in this city. For five years he had beer employed at the Falls mill. Mr. Io-vaske was 44 years of age and was a widower. He had no near relatives

Old Steamboat Man. Ebenezer Parker of New York, well known here in the freight and steam-boat line a number of years ago, is visiting here for a few days. He is warmly greeted by his former quaintances. DETAILS OF OPERATIONS

No Acknowledgment of Crushing De. feat in Carpathians. Petrograd, May 4, via London, May 5, 2.50 a. m.—The Russian war office to-night isued the following communica-

BY RUSSIAN WAR OFFICE

"The enemy threatening Libau and Mitau remained passive yesterday. Both places are held by our troops.

Bossiena (about 45 miles "Near Rossiena (about 45 miles northwest of Kovno) there have been "On the left bank of the Niemen, north of the Bobr and Narew rivers, and on the left bank of the Vistula as and on the left bank of the Vistula as far as the Pilica, there has been no important change. After a fight we oc-cupied several villages between the Netta and Egrbna, to the north of the great marsh.

"The Germans attacked our position on the right bank of the Omulew on a somewhat wide front, but were forced to retreat in disorder by our fire. They abandoned their dead and wounded in front of our positions.

"In Galicia, from the Vistula to the Carpathians, a succession of battles developed during May 2 and 3. Enemy detachments succeeded in crossing to the right bank of the Dunajec, but our fire prevented them from advancing further than the bank. "The fighting was particularly desperate in the region of Tuchow and Blecz, where the enemy artillery poured forth an extraordinary volume of

"In the course of our counter-attacks we took several hundred prisoners.
"We confirmed the presence at this point of German active army elements, who were making their first appear-ance on our Carpathian front. "In the direction of Stry, in the region of Golovetza, a most fierce battle continues. Here one hill changed hands three times. We finally captured it yesterday morning. During the day we took a fresh batch of 1,200 prisoners, with five officers, and also captured three mitralleuses.

"At the source of the River Svitze an enemy attempt to envelop our flank failed completely. At this point also we took prisoners and forced the enemy to fall back in great disorder." HOT MUNICIPAL PRIMARY HELD AT LOS ANGELES Suspended Chief of Police Won First Place on Ticket. man, his financial aid has been a wonderful assistance to many institutions.

Mr. Tinker was married nearly 60 years ago to Miss Augusta R. Coombs of Winchester, N. H., who survives him. He also leaves a son, Rev. C. Perley Tinker, of New York, and a daughter, Mrs. C. E. Stone, of St. Paul, Minn.

Minn. Alanson Towne.

Alanson Towne died Tuesday in his eighty-ninth year at the residence of his son Principal Walter A. Towne of New London. Mr. Towne was born in Dana, Mass., June 3, 1826, and spent his early days on a farm. He then turned his attention to mercantile on terrollars. Sebastian through a window of his home and he escaped death by a nar-row margin. Sebastian and Mrs. Lillie Pratt are on trial here on an in-dictment charging them with contrib-uting to the delinquency of Edith Serkin, Mrs. Pratt's step-sister.

The mayoralty campaign was one of the most strenuous in the city's history and was marked by bitter per-430,000 Clerks and Salesmon in British Army.

London, May 4, 6.47 p. m.—Premier Asquits, addressing a meeting of a committee formed to encourage recruiting among employes in the wholesale and retail distributing trades of the country today, said that out of, 790,000 clerks, commercial travelers and other workers in these trades, 430,000 had poined the army.

Died From Self Inflicted Wounds. Dover, N. H., May 4.—Wounds self-inflicted with a pocketknift were re-sponsible for the death yesterday of Colonel Charles C. Goss, president of the Merchants National bank of this city. Colonel Goss had been ill sever-al weeks. He was 45 years of age.

AND STILL A NEW ONE!

Luxury Biscuit at RALLION'S

Julia THERE is no advertising medium in Eastern Connecticut equal to The Bul-